Folks,
Phil would manage all of the contracts for this effort in addition to the major NatureServe contract. Currently Mark Jen is the only one trained, but he is managing multiple contracts related to the watershed pilot. I concur with Phil's request, especially since it will also be to meet on Bristol Bay issues..
Thanks

Marla and Dianne,
This is a request to use AK resource extract funds to travel to Seattle for COR training the week of December 6. The training is so that I can manage the NatureServe contract for resource characterization and risk assessment in Bristol Bay. I will also coordinate with other Bristol Bay team members while in Seattle.

Michael has already agreed that I need the training and suggested I consult with you for travel funds. I still need Patty's concurrence.

I am checking on cost but it will involve a flight and three nights in Seattle or approx $1200 to $1500.

Phil
